Harold Grey of St. Johnsbury arrived in the city yesterday. He enrolled as a student at Goddard seminary to-day. Grey will become a candidate for the Goddard football team this week. At St. Johnsbury Grey has played baseball and football for St. Johnsbury academy for several years and should prove a valuable man for Goddard. Other new students are expected to report the first part of the week to enroll at Goddard.

After completing his early morning rounds to the Central Vermont freight yards for this morning's collection of signal lights to-day, baggage-master George Beattie became highly incensed over the wilful manner in which the lights have been objects of stone throwing and rifle targets. Baggage-master Beattie found no less than six lights badly battered and one had two holes, evidently made by a bullet. From now on Mr. Beattie intends to place a night relay of inspectors to watch the lighted districts and hopes to ensnare a few of the law breakers.
